

Rev Up Recycling VIDEO CONTEST

Recycle.
More.Often.

Ownership

Once a commercial is chosen, the winner(s) hereby assigns the copyright of it to DPW, which shall have the right to produce and distribute the commercial to all relevant media. No payment will be made to the winner(s) for these rights. The finished commercial will be property of Anne Arundel County's DPW.

Notification

Winners will be notified in writing in early April 2009.

Prizes and Recognition

DPW will donate an Aiptek A High Definition Digital Camcorder and Adobe Premiere Pro CS3 software that captures, edits and delivers video to disc, the web and mobile devices to all high schools that have students participating in the contest.

Prizes will be awarded for First, Second and Third Place videos as well as Honorable Mentions. The First Place commercial will be aired on local television stations and all winning commercials will be posted on the RecycleMoreOften.com website.
